

Graz, 2 December 2013

Re: Nomination of participants to Workshop No 1/2014<sup>1</sup> (5-7 February 2014) “Mobility programmes for sustainable plurilingual and intercultural learning” (PluriMobil) within the framework of the ECML’s medium-term programme of activities 2012 - 2015, Graz, Austria

Venue: Graz, Austria

Dates: 5-7 February 2014

Participants: 1 delegate per member state, to be nominated by the national nominating authorities

Working languages: English and French, with simultaneous interpretation

Deadline for nomination: 2 January 2014

Profile of participants

Professional background

- teacher trainers for upper secondary schools and secondary vocational training;
- teachers in upper secondary schools and secondary vocational training.

Experience, competences required

Involvement in mobility activities and programmes

Expected involvement/tasks

Before: Familiarisation with the concept of PluriMobil, the existing scenarios/lesson plans and the indicated instruments and documents.

During: Adaptation of the scenarios/lesson plans to the needs of upper secondary trainee teachers and pupils (upper secondary schools and secondary vocational training), feedback on implementation tools

After: Dissemination of results in the context of local / regional / national / international cooperation.

<sup>1</sup> Visa pending

Information on the project is available online on the ECML project website under: <http://plurimobil.ecml.at>